normal persons conditioner

a daily conditioner containing a light combination of moisturisers, protein and an anti-sebum agent.

how to use.

if you think of polishing bowling balls or kneading bread, while you're at this you have probably gone to far, but somewhere in between will do. as normal persons is of higher concentration you only need about 20c worth on your hand for each head of average hair, (and don't tell me you don't know how much that is).
