

evo[®]

mane attention[™]

love is in the hair

ritual salvation shampoo

a gentle, moisturising shampoo to transform dry, damaged hair.

how to use.

they have instructions for tooth picks don't they? think 'here's my 50 cents worth' – now spread it across both hands. stroke full length of hair – trying to distribute evenly – and then, placing hand in a feigned spider position – massage gently as if you were taking the flesh from a mango. use this same technique on your partner later on and receive one free breakfast in bed.

results.

hair is gently cleansed; texture is replaced.

recommended for.

stressed-out, chemically afflicted, dry and damaged hair; thick hair; helping to prevent fading of colour.

features and benefits.

cetrimonium chloride - conditions and moisturises; amodimethicone - improves combability and sheen; silk amino acids - provides protein to strengthen hair; hydrolysed collagen - improves manageability, shine, texture; hydrolysed wheat protein (and) hydrolysed wheat starch - adds strength, flexibility and body; benzophenone - 4 - ultraviolet light absorber, protects hair from sun damage; aloe barbadensis leaf juice - humectant, hair conditioning agent and skin conditioning agent; panthenol (and) propylene glycol- hair conditioning agent.

size.

30ml, 300ml

PH: 6 - 7